HE ESCAPED WHEN HE FOUND AN ANGRY WOMAN WAS AFTER HIM. But Now He is in a Real Prison, Where He

Must Answer Charge of Abandonment and Perhaps Another One of Bigamy. In a small and dingy room on the top floor of the thickly populated tenement 41 Mulberry street in this city, next to what is known as Randits' Roost," two Brooklyn policemen, who were armed with a warrant for the errest of Michael Angelo De Lucca, a Williams. burth sculptor, and two policemen from the limbeth street station encountered several dozen enraged Italians yesterday morning. De Lucca is the man whom the St. Nicholas Society, an Italian organization at 78 Mulberry street, engaged in October to make a status of the Virgin. The society paid him $1.0, and De Lucca had the work fairly inder way in his shop in North Second treet. De Lucca resisted arrest, but was soon subdued. He was taken to Williamsburgh and held at the Bedford avenue station house. Lawyer John P. Donnelly, in the Lee Avenue Folice Court, asked for De Lucca's discharge on the ground that the abandonment took place in Italy twenty-four years ago. His request was denied, Justice Consolly remanding the sculptor for trial in default of $500 mil.

Through an interpreter De Lucca said he was 42 years old. When he was 17 years old he married Rosaria Zecchia in Italy, only to be deserted by her one month afterward. He obtained a separation from her, and entered into an arrangement with Constanza by which she simply lived with him as his wife. She followed him to America, he said, but they were never married. On account of Constanza's gealonsy, De Lucca added, he took up with Marie, whose real name, he said, is Nicola Ciprani, and who is now living at 47 Havemerer street, Williamsburgh. De Lucca said that Rosa Bartanazzio was the only woman who had any claim upon him.

When the case was disposed of, Marie, in the cerridar of the court, said that she would kill De I ucca at the lirst opportunity. De Lucca may Irow also be prosecuted for bigamy.

$5,000 SATISFIED MI-S DUGDALE,

Until Her Lawyer Was Satisfied. The suit of Mabel E. Dugdale to recover $50,000 damages from James B. M. Grosvenor for breach of promise of marriage was called for trial vesterday in the Superior Court before Unie! Judge Sedgwick. The suit has been pending a long time, and Mr. Gresvenor declares that he bus a release from the plaintiff. given some years ago, in which she requested her lawyer to discontinue the action.

Henry E. Howland, on behalf of Mr. Grosrenor, told the Court of this release, and said that he had offered to pay the costs of the action, but that Samuel H. Randall, the woman's lawyer, had objected, because he wanted to try the case to secure his fees. Miss burning would not come to court.

Mr. nandall said that the claim had been as-Mr. tiandoil said that the claim had been assigned to him as security for his compensation, and that without his knowledge the case has been fixed by paying his client 50,000.

Judge Sodgwick said that if there was a release, that would settle the case, but if Mr. handalt wanted to proceed on the basis of his fees he must take the consequences.

The lawyers finally settled the case on private terms.

BUILDER SHERIDAN'S SUICIDE. It is Supposed to Have Been the Result of a Protracted Spree. James Sherblan, a builder in the Twenty-fourth ward in Brooklyn, committed suicide yesterday morning by shooting himself in the head at his home, 218 Herkimer street. His wife went down stairs shortly after 7 o'clock leaving him in the front bedroom on the second floor. In a lew moments a shot was heard in the room, and Mr. Sheridan was found lying on the floor with a builet wound in his head and a big revolver, with one chamber empty, by his side. He was unconscious and he remained in that condition at St. Mary's Hospital until 4 o'clock, when death occurred. He was 50 years old. He had been a carponter in varily life, but for several years had been a builder and speculator in real estate. He has had no reversals in business, so far as known, her any family troubles, and his suicule is supposed to have resulted from mental disturbances following a protracted spressible leaves three sons and two daughters. on the floor with a bullet wound in his head

Is Typhus Abourd the J. W. Taylor!

The steamship J. W. Taylor from Santos arrived at her pier in Brooklyn on Monday. ut the health authorities have pronibited the discharge of the cargo of coffee or the landing discharge of the cargo of coffee or the landing of the crew. The log book showed that the engineer of the vessel died at sea on Feb. 13, and that there was no physician aboard. The Captain decided that death resulted from typhus lever. The absence of a clean bill of health from the Quarantine officer resulted in the action of the Brooklyn authorities.

Mary Smith, one of the typhus stricken prisoners in the Queens county jail, died yesterday. It was thought that Henry Hellman, who was among the first taken down with the disease, would not live the night out. The Smith woman makes the second death in the Jail. No new cases have been reported here in about two weeks.

Mrs. Spannocchia Has Another Suit.

Mrs. Libbie Spannocchia, who compromised claim of $150,000 against ex-Judge Frederick N. Loew as executor of her former husband, Jacob Vanderpoet, filed a complaint yesterday in the Supreme Court in an action to recover dower in the estate of Jacob Vanderpectors dower in the estate of Jacob vander-poel. The action compromised, which is said to have been for $500, was to recover damages for alleged misrepresentations as to the value of vanderpoel's estate when she accepted $10,000 in lieu of permanent allmony in her action for divorce. Vanderpoel is said to have left an estate of $600,000. She also asks $30.-0.00 damages for detention of her dower. She will be used by a release of all claims given when she accepted permanent allmony.

QUILLOT'S INNOCENCE PROCLAIMED.

Gustave Guillot, the Frenchman who was arrested on Sept. 3, 1892, on the French pier on the charge of stealing $125 from Nicolas Notovitch, is now a free man. The indictment against him has been dismissed. The complainant has written to the District Attorney's office from Paris that the real thief was an Italian who is now in Italy. This, of course, is very satisfactory as far as it goes, but because of Mr. Notovitch's charge Mr. Guillot spent two weeks in the Tombs, was indicted for grand larceny, and lost his employment as New York agent for A. Touchard Lallemand, shipping and forwarding agent at Havre, Paris, and Rouen.

Mr. Guillot is a good-looking man of 30, who at the time of his arrest was living at 1,198 Park avenue. Notovitch and his invalid wife were among the passengers who went on hoard La Touraine on Friday night, Sept. 2. Mrs. Notovitch thought she heard some one in her stateroom at 3:30 o'clock on Saturday morning. She waked her husband, and he morning. She waked her husband, and he turned up the electric light in time to see a man run out of the stateroom. Mr. Notovitch missed six twenty-dollar bills and one five-dollar bill. He dressed hastly and ran down the pier, where Policeman James McAdam arrested Guillot, Notovitch said that Guillot was the man who had run out of his stateroom. Policeman McAdam's affidavit in the police court said:

police court said:

I saw the defendant running up the dock toward the gate with the crowd after him. Notoritch was in the crowd, and then and there accused the defendant of stealing the money out of his room and described the bank notes. Deponent searched the defendant and found in defendant's pocket a roll of bills, the same denomination as described by Notorich, and which Notorich here and there identified as his property, which had been stoled from him by the defendant a few minutes before.

PITCHED OVER THE DASHBOARD. Driver Lynch and His Car Get the Worst of a Collision With a Truck. Car 301 of the First avenue line was running down the steep hill at Eighty-sixth street yesterday morning with a big truck belonging to Neilheimer & Smith, maltsters, just ahead. John Lynch of 253 East Sixty-second street, the driver of the car, called to Charles Causthe driver of the car, called to Charles Causpans, the truck driver, to get out of the way. As Causpans tried to turn out the car struck the reat wheel of the truck.

There was a crash of glass, and Driver Lynch, who had uncourded his team to swing them out of danger, went flying over the desiboard. His head and hip were so bedly bruised that he had to give up work and go home. His team tooks away and ran two blocks. The horses were caught by a policeman.

The woodwork of the car was hadly damaged, and half a dozen or more of the wirdlows were broken. No one but the driver was hurt.

Causpans was arrested, but was discharged in the Hariem Police Court yesterday.

Newfoundland's Prosperity. St. Johns, N. F., March 7.-The Newfoundernor in his address thanks the world for its generosity in helping the sufferers from the at St. Johns. He announces that the fisheries have been good; that copper. the fisheries have been good; that copper, coal, and iron have been discovered, copper in the north part of the island, coal and iron in the interior—the coal beds that are lifteen miles long, very wide, and of good quality; also, that there is a large surplus revenue, part of which he recommen is be appropriated to the reduction of the public deet and part to a new Fire Department for St. Johns; and that a new line of railway has been projected from Exploits Bay to St. George Bay, passing through the coal field.

Five hours before the opening of the Legislature the legislative building was discovered on fire. It was extinguished, and only slight damage was done.

He Played Cards and the Lottery SPRINGVILLE, N. Y., March 7 .- Lee Multer, teller of the Farmers' Bank here, has abseended and is $3,000 short in his accounts. Multer was an exceedingly popular man and apparently attended strictly to his bank duties, and was implicitly trusted. It bank duties, and was implicitly trusted. It now appears, however, that he was an inveterate card player and a patron of lottery and lived high. The delalcation was accomplished by means of false entries. It is said Multer has gone to kansas. He came here from Ashford. N. Y. where his father is a respected citizen. About a year ago he married a young lady of this place. His bondsmen have made good the amount of his defaication.

Was Pinkerton Detective Ford Poisoned PITTSBURGH, March 7 .- Pinkerton Detective Ford, who wove the web that caught Davidson Gallagher, Beatty, and Dempsey in the Homestead poisonings, and who is now sick in the Cook county hospital in Chicago, is thought to have been poisoned. The physicians have attributed his trouble to typhold lever, but the diagnosis is doubted by those who think they have grounds for believing he was dosed with a drug put into two drinks of liquor he took one night shortly before leaving her est weeks ago. Another linkerton detective who was also sugaged in the Homestead polynomial cases is expected here to-morrow, it is said, to investigate the matter. Cook county hospital in Chicago, is thought

Rhode Island Voters to Lose Their Suffrage. PROVIDENCE, March 7 .- The total number of names to be stricken from the voting lists in Providence, Fawtucket, Woonsocket, and Lincoln, unless proofs of naturalization are immediately forthcoming, will be in excess of 5,000. In ward of of Providence, which is a Democratic stronghold, the Reard of Canvassers fail to comily with the instructions of Chief Supervisor Biologett. It is the probable intention of the Democrats to test the law and Biologett's powers. So far as the work of supervision has gone in Newport it is found that there are about 700 naturalized registry voters who must produce their naturalization papers.

A LIVELY DAYLIGHT FIRE.

A fire which broke out in the cellar of the Colonial flats, on the southeast corner of Columbus avenue and Ninety-fourth street, at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon did $10,000 damage to the building and ruined about $5,000 worth of furniture belonging to the The fire began in the cellar, near the steam

The fire began in the cellar, near the steam boiler. Every one not out safely, but the smoke filled the hallways so rapidly that three children and a colored servant had to be carried down a ladder from Mrs. A. H. Boughton's apartments in the second story, directly above the boiler room. Smoke and water did most of the damage in the apartments, as the fire was mainly conlined to the cellar.

Mrs. Edwards, who occupied the middle flat on the fourth floor on the avenue side of the building, during the excitement ran out and left her sewels, which she had collected to save, lying on the table. Insurance Patrolman William Banniater, who went into Mrs. Edwards's flat for some purpose, found the diamonis, five pieces in all. He did them up in paper, and, after the fire, returned them to Mrs. Edward.
